Taipei and Hualien are just a little over two hours apart by train or car. These two cities are, however, __(41)__ in terms of population, economy, and overall vibe*. With a population of close to 3 million, Taipei has 30 times the __(42)__ of residents that Hualien does. It's therefore a large __(43)__ city where everybody always seems to be on the move. Skyscrapers fill the skyline and smartly dressed people fill the crowded streets and alleys. It's an expensive place to live, but the comforts are many.

Hualien, on the other hand, is a laid-back town where the pace of life is much slower. It is surrounded by impressive scenery: towering mountains on one side and the glorious Pacific Ocean on the other. __(44)__, all of this beauty comes at an affordable* price, especially when compared with Taipei. Fishing, farming, and to some degree tourism, are the main industries. __(45)__ their relative closeness, the differences between Taipei and Hualien couldn't be more obvious. Both, however, are great places to live and work.

In January 2020, an article posted on www.greatgameindia.com made some shocking revelations* regarding COVID-19. For a start, it claimed that, __(46)__ the outbreak of this virus, it had actually been developed by the Canadian government as a biological* weapon. Such bioweapons* __(47)__ various forms, and the report stated that a major Winnipeg lab had, as early as 2013, been testing the virus for use in several applications. The operation was, furthermore, kept top secret __(48)__ such a fatal disease __(48)__ into the wrong hands.

__(49)__ to keep the research confidential*, however, ultimately failed. The government in China learned of the program in early 2019 and sent an agent to gain access to the lab and smuggle the virus back to a testing facility in Wuhan, China. Unfortunately for everyone, it was from this Mainland lab that the virus first leaked to a local fish market and then to the outside world, eventually __(50)__ to a global pandemic.

As many readers suspected, this article has since been proven to be completely false. This didn't, however, prevent the fake news from itself spreading like a virus.
