Have you been to Jiufen Old Street*? Jiufen is a famous tourist spot in the mountains of Northeast Taiwan. The town grew quickly when the Japanese ruled Taiwan from 1895 to 1945 because gold was found in a nearby mountain. While today there is no more gold-digging there, there is a gold museum that explains the history of Jiufen. The museum even has real bars of gold that visitors can look at and touch. Now, Jiufen Old Street is popular for the many interesting shops and special restaurants. Many types of food and drinks can be found there, such as herb* cakes, taro* and sweet potato balls, and traditional teas. Jiufen also has become famous because it looks just like a town in the famous Japanese animated* film, Spirited Away. One of the best things about this town is that it is located quite near Taipei City. It takes only around one hour to get to Jiufen by bus or car!
