Last summer Tommy moved to a new city. He was worried because he did not know how to make new friends. On his first day there, his neighbor Frank knocked on the door and introduced himself. Frank said there would be a sleepover at his house that night, and Tommy was invited.

Tommy came over later that evening with his sleeping bag and pillow. He talked with Frank and met lots of his future classmates. He was nervous at first, but everyone was friendly to him. They told Tommy some gossip about people he did not even know yet. Next, they played board games. Tommy’s new friends told stories and jokes, and the room became full of laughter. After several games, everyone grabbed slices of pizza and a cup of coffee. They went to the basement to watch a movie.

When the movie was over, everyone got into their sleeping bags on the floor. Tommy laid his head on his pillow, closed his eyes, and smiled. He realized he did not need to be so worried about making new friends after all.

26. How did Tommy meet Frank?
(A) They went to the same school. (B) They met in a potluck party.
(C) They lived near each other. (D) They joined a summer camp together.
27. According to this passage, what didn’t Frank and Tommy do in the sleepover?
(A) Watching movies.
(B) Telling ghost stories.
(C) Laughing and playing games.
(D) Drinking and eating.
28. What can we infer from the passage?
(A) Frank and his friends usually went to bed early.
(B) Frank was a shy and nervous boy.
(C) Tommy will fit in well in the new place.
(D) Tommy could not sleep without his pillow.
29. What is the meaning of the word “sleepover” ?
(A) 畢業舞會
(B) 化妝舞會
(C) 慶功宴
(D) 留宿派對
30. What does the word “gossip” mean?
