1. Dear Ronald McDonald,

My name is George, and I am eight years old. Right now, I am living in a hospital in New York City because I am sick with cancer. The doctors say that I will be okay, but it will be a long time before I start to feel better. This is because the medicine I have to take makes me feel tired and sad all the time. Yesterday, I saw you on a television ad for McDonald's, where you visited children in a hospital. You told them jokes, and gave them presents and balloons. It looked like a lot of fun. If you have time sometime soon, can you come visit me in my hospital room? It would mean a lot to me and make me feel better!

Thanks,

George

2. Have you heard of the Red Cross*? The Red Cross is an international group that was created to help people suffering from disasters* around the world. These disasters can include things like war, disease, or natural disasters like a typhoon. If people are in danger, the Red Cross is often there to help provide medical care, food, and a safe environment. One important job that the Red Cross does is to collect blood donations. This blood has the power to save lives for people with a medical need for it. Another big part of the Red Cross' job is to give the people it cares for hope that things will get better. This also means that the Red Cross has a goal of helping people from all over the world and does not simply pick people from one or two countries to help. Therefore, the Red Cross is a group that does not belong to any country's government. It is an international group that tries to bring the world together and help all of humanity*. *the Red Cross 紅十字會 *disaster n. [C] 災難

*humanity n. [U] 人類
