Dear Linda,
You won't believe what happened! Three boys pushed a girl down the stairs at school. Then, they laughed at her and called her names! I ran up to the girl to help her, and the boys made fun of me for doing so. I ignored them and took the girl to the nurse's office. The three boys followed us and kept calling us names as I dropped the girl off! Once she was safe, I yelled at the boys and drew everyone's attention to them. When they realized that people were staring at them, they quickly ran away. Later, I went to Principal Johnson's office to tell him what had happened. The boys won't be in school for a while; they have been suspended* for a week, so hopefully they have learned their lesson. If not, I'll report them again!
See you soon,
Suzie

Nick Vujicic is no stranger to bullying. Suffering from a disease in which all four of his limbs never developed, he was bullied by others from a young age. They would often make fun of him for being ugly or different. Slowly, Nick began to take their words seriously, causing anger and bitterness* to build in his heart. Although he was showing up every day, he was secretly dying inside – and at one point even wanted to kill himself. Thankfully, Nick had a loving, supportive family. Under his faith in God, he was able to remind himself he is “fearfully and wonderfully made.” Years later, after Nick became very successful, he said in a speech, “If you leave a seed of lies in your heart and in your mind and you don't know the truth, you will die with the lie.” It is stories like his that remind us the power of bullying. We must find ways to overcome it without letting it get the best of us.
