

新北市立新北高級工業職業學校 113 學年度 第 2 學期 期末考 試題卷 New Taipei Municipal New Taipei Industrial Vocational High School								班級			座號		電腦卡作答
科目	英語文	出題教師	郭書源	審題教師	呂芳鎮	適用科別	應用英語	適用年級	一年級	姓名		<input type="checkbox"/> 是 <input type="checkbox"/> 否

Part I. Vocabulary 14%

1. The research paper published by the renowned professor _____ several practical solutions to reduce climate change. (A) fascinates (B) increases (C) discusses (D) finds
2. The thief had been involved in a _____ of burglaries throughout the city and was finally arrested. (A) range (B) method (C) fiction (D) series
3. During the presentation, the historian carefully explained the _____ and cultural significance of these ancient traditions. (A) expectations (B) origins (C) events (D) containers
4. Sarah developed a more efficient _____ for organizing her study schedule, which helped her improve her grades significantly. (A) fiction (B) field (C) method (D) series
5. Over the years, my grandfather has _____ countless vintage coins from different eras and countries around the world. (A) organized (B) launched (C) broadened (D) collected
6. The young student hopes to find inner peace and discover life's deeper meaning through studying ancient texts of _____. (A) fascination (B) philosophy (C) technology (D) increase
7. The tradition of giving flowers on Valentine's Day actually _____ in ancient Roman culture many centuries ago. (A) originated (B) assisted (C) occupied (D) arranged
8. David tries to satisfy his _____ hunger by meditating daily and participating in volunteer work at local charities. (A) original (B) fierce (C) spiritual (D) elderly
9. The elderly gentleman loved _____ through the peaceful garden every morning while contemplating his daily writing. (A) strolling (B) cooperating (C) originating (D) assisting
10. Since we couldn't eat all the watermelon at once, dad stored the leftover pieces in a sealed _____ in the fridge. (A) shelter (B) stroll (C) vehicle (D) container
11. The marine scientists are conducting important _____ studies to observe how dolphins communicate in their natural habitat. (A) range (B) field (C) series (D) worth
12. The popular TV drama, which premiered last month and features talented young actors, has attracted viewers of all backgrounds, _____ from teenagers to middle-aged adults. (A) ranging (B) increasing (C) broadening (D) fascinating
13. When Tom finished his master's degree, his counselor encouraged him to pursue a meaningful _____ that would match his skills and interests. (A) event (B) origin (C) neighborhood (D) occupation
14. Many tourists _____ themselves from the intense afternoon heat under the shade of large umbrellas at the resort. (A) arrange (B) shelter (C) contain (D) expect

Part II. Cloze 20%

John's exchange program taught him a lot about cultural differences. (15) of the most memorable parts of his stay in Taiwan was a wedding banquet in Kaohsiung.

The banquet was totally different from what he (16). In America, banquets are held in large dining halls. This one, (17), was right in the street! (18) up to shelter all the guests from a fierce sun, a huge tent occupied nearly half the street. Under the tent, guests sat at large round tables, (19) cheerfully. At one end, cooks worked energetically to prepare food.

John's host father explained that this kind of banquet, (20) a "ban-doh" in Taiwanese, originated in the countryside. In the old days, the whole neighborhood arranged ban-dohs for special events. The host prepared ingredients, and the neighbors helped out. Some would cook, and (21) would provide tables or assist in other ways. Toward the end, the host gave the guests containers for leftovers and torches to help (22) their way home. The ban-doh back then was all about enjoying (23) community and togetherness.

John is lucky to have seen this fascinating event. It is the first story he will (24) his friends and family back home. What a wonderful memory of his student exchange experience in Taiwan!

15. (A) One (B) Each (C) Some (D) Many
16. (A) have expected (B) had expected (C) expecting (D) am expecting
17. (A) in the same (B) on the other hand (C) as a result (D) in addition
18. (A) Having put (B) Put (C) Was putting (D) Putting
19. (A) chatted (B) chatting (C) being chatted (D) by chatting

新北市立新北高級工業職業學校 113 學年度 第 2 學期 期末考 試題卷 New Taipei Municipal New Taipei Industrial Vocational High School							班級			座號		電腦卡作答
科目	英語文	出題教師	郭書源	審題教師	呂芳鎮	適用科別	應用英語	適用年級	一年級	姓名		<input type="checkbox"/> 是 <input type="checkbox"/> 否

20. (A) known for (B) known as (C) known to (D) known with
 21. (A) others (B) another (C) other (D) the other
 22. (A) lighting (B) lighted (C) light (D) lights
 23. (A) a sense of (B) a couple of (C) a number of (D) a slice of
 24. (A) fill in (B) come up with (C) share with (D) take part in

Part III. Sentence Completion 20% (不考慮大小寫)

- | | | | | |
|---------------|----------------|-------------------|-------------|--------------|
| (A) worthy | (B) discuss | (C) technological | (D) with | (E) increase |
| (AB) audience | (AC) speaks of | (BC) as well | (BD) expert | (CD) by |

From the very beginning, even before any words are spoken, it becomes obvious that Sarah Chen's TED Talk will be something special. On the brightly lit stage, a toddler sits comfortably in a colorful high chair, playing with simple toys. Then, a young girl confidently walks onto the stage, waving cheerfully at the (25). This is Sarah Chen, who has just become the youngest presenter ever to share her insights (26) millions of TED viewers worldwide.

The eight-year-old is here to (27) the importance of early childhood brain development. Using her little brother as a live demonstration, Sarah shows exactly how caregivers can support their children's cognitive growth simply (28) being present and engaged with them. She (29) how the everyday interactions between parents and babies - from singing lullabies to reading bedtime stories - are actually building critical neural pathways in developing minds. "Every smile, every conversation, every moment of connection helps shape a child's future," she explains confidently.

However, Sarah points out that many modern families struggle with a serious challenge. Parents today often find themselves distracted by smartphones, tablets, and other (30) devices rather than focusing on quality time with their children. This digital distraction not only slows down children's cognitive development but also weakens the emotional bonds between family members (31).

Sarah encourages all parents and caregivers to (32) their daily face-to-face interactions with young children. She challenges her audience to consider what truly deserves to be (33) of their precious attention - endless social media scrolling and work emails, or the incredible opportunity to nurture a young mind during its most formative years.

Since delivering her powerful presentation, Sarah has gained recognition as a young (34) of child development, and her message continues to inspire families around the world.

Part IV. textual cohesion 8% (五選四)

- (A) You can find episodes filmed in countries like Indonesia, Norway, and Guyana.
- (B) In addition, his YouTube channel is very successful, with over 15 million subscribers.
- (C) Still others include special themes, like holiday meals or meals for other special occasions.
- (D) Whatever your reasons are, there is certainly a cooking channel on YouTube that fits your needs.
- (E) Many YouTube chefs also run online stores where fans can purchase their favorite kitchen tools and cookbooks.

YouTube is a good source of entertainment; you can also learn many new skills from the right videos. Take cooking for example. Maybe you are trying to improve your cooking skills to impress your friends or to help your family out at dinner time. 35 Some videos teach you simple and easy ways to prepare food for everyday life, while others can show you more creative methods of making delicious meals. 36 One YouTube chef that creates videos showing all three of these specialties is Gordon Ramsay. Ramsay is a professional chef who owns restaurants with many Michelin stars. 37 Ramsay is famous for his angry but humorous style, and he is often the star of reality cooking shows on television. However, YouTube is a space he uses mostly for instructional purposes, where he can share both classic and new recipes with his fans. On Ramsay's channel we can also get views of various cities and countries, as he is able to travel around the world trying new ingredients and recipes. 38 Ramsay uses his travels to craft mouth-watering dishes made from rare ingredients like ostrich eggs and reindeer meat, bringing a unique twist to classic meals. Ramsay is only one example of entertaining YouTube chefs—there are many more of them if you take the time to explore!

Part V. Reading Comprehension 6%

If you visit Spain, one celebration you shouldn't miss is a feria, a traditional festival usually held in towns across the country. In the past, ferias were religious events, celebrated to honor patron saints in town squares. Today, they are mainly connected with local foods and traditions, such as seafood, wine, or regional specialties like chorizo and paella, which are typically produced in each area.

新北市立新北高級工業職業學校 113 學年度 第 2 學期 期末考 試題卷 New Taipei Municipal New Taipei Industrial Vocational High School							班級			座號		電腦卡作答
科目	英語文	出題教師	郭書源	審題教師	呂芳鎮	適用科別	應用英語	適用年級	一年級	姓名		<input type="checkbox"/> 是 <input type="checkbox"/> 否

A feria takes place in almost every month of the year in different parts of Spain. Among the better-known celebrations is the Feria de Abril, held from late April to early May in the city of Sevilla. Besides traditional flamenco dancing, people can enjoy delicious tapas, local sherry, and grilled meats. Music, horse parades, and colorful decorations also add to the excitement. Another interesting feria, which is held in the Galician town of O Grove, features fresh seafood. Here locals and visitors alike can taste steaming plates of octopus, mussels, and other ocean delicacies.

For an authentic taste of Spain, be sure to attend at least one feria on your trip. You'll not only taste delicious locally produced foods but also experience one of the country's most cherished cultural traditions.

39. According to the passage, how have Spanish ferias changed over time?

- (A) They have evolved from religious celebrations into festivals focused on local food and culture
- (B) They have remained exactly the same since ancient times and still serve religious purposes only
- (C) They used to be food festivals but now focus mainly on religious ceremonies and prayers
- (D) They have changed from small local events into international tourist attractions only

40. What makes each Spanish feria unique according to the text?

- (E) The specific month when it takes place during the year
- (F) The regional foods and local specialties that are featured at each celebration
- (G) The religious ceremonies that are performed during the festival
- (H) The traditional music and dancing styles presented at the event

41. Why does the author suggest tourists attend a Spanish feria?

- (I) Because they offer the cheapest way to experience Spanish cuisine and entertainment
- (J) Because they provide an authentic experience of local food and cultural traditions
- (K) Because they are the only places where tourists can buy genuine Spanish products
- (L) Because they feature the most famous restaurants and chefs from across Spain

Part VI. Literacy 8%

Sarah traveled around Taiwan for three months. She's now preparing a presentation to illustrate her observations about Taiwanese food and describe her experiences in Taiwan. Here are three slides from her PowerPoint file:

What Food Is to the Taiwanese

Most people are familiar with and used to the internationally accepted custom of having three meals a day, but why limit ourselves when there are so many tasty and savory snacks and delicacies available?

Taipei, the capital of Taiwan, has various stores dedicated to food, from famous Michelin-starred restaurants to popular food stands with long lines. That's how serious the Taiwanese are about food and how food has become such an important part of their culture.

Food Etiquette in Taiwan

- * Don't leave any leftovers, for this is disrespectful to the chef.
- * At the table, the person who serves the tea is always the youngest one.
- * In most cases, the most elderly person at a table orders food and takes his or her food first.
- * Never ever stick your chopsticks upright in a bowl of rice. Doing so is believed to bring bad luck.

新北市立新北高級工業職業學校 113 學年度 第 2 學期 期末考 試題卷 New Taipei Municipal New Taipei Industrial Vocational High School							班級			座號		電腦卡作答
科目	英語文	出題教師	郭書源	審題教師	呂芳鎮	適用科別	應用英語	適用年級	一年級	姓名		<input type="checkbox"/> 是 <input type="checkbox"/> 否

Newcomers' Impact on Taiwanese Cuisine

Before the seventeenth century, people in Taiwan mainly used crops like taro and millet when cooking. Then, the Fujianese people brought with them the influence of Southern China's cuisine. In particular, they introduced rice to Taiwan.

When the Japanese invaded Taiwan in the 1890s and then occupied it for fifty years, they also left a huge footprint on Taiwan's food culture.

以下為一位聽者聽完 Sarah 的分享後的回饋反思。請從 Sarah 的投影片中找出最適當的單詞 word 填入下列句子空格中，並視語法需要做適當的字形變化。每格限填一個單詞 (word)。

After watching Sarah's presentation, I feel impressed by how deeply food is rooted in Taiwanese culture. I'm amazed by the 42. _____ of dining options in Taipei, a city filled with restaurants, diners, delis, and food stands! I also find that Taiwanese people hold great respect for 43. _____ at a dining table. Moreover, I understand that the diversity of Taiwanese food comes from the impact of different cultures.

44. From (A) to (F) below, choose the ONES that are true for Sarah's presentation.

- (A) Taiwanese people usually have four meals a day, including night snacks.
- (B) Taipei is only famous for its many Michelin-starred restaurants.
- (C) In Taiwan, to show respect to the chef, you should always finish your food.
- (D) The youngest person should be responsible for ordering food for the others.
- (E) Before Fujianese people came to Taiwan, Taiwanese people did not eat rice.
- (F) Taiwan's cuisine had a huge influence on Japanese food culture after the 1890s.

45. Which word in Sarah's presentation means "rules about how to behave politely"?

1~41 題請畫卡， 42 題以後請作答於第五頁

新北市立新北高級工業職業學校 113 學年度 第 2 學期 期末考 試題卷 New Taipei Municipal New Taipei Industrial Vocational High School							班級			座號		電腦卡作答
科目	英語文	出題教師	郭書源	審題教師	呂芳鎮	適用科別	應用英語	適用年級	一年級	姓名		<input type="checkbox"/> 是 <input type="checkbox"/> 否

Part VI. Literacy 8%

42.	43.	44.	45.
-----	-----	-----	-----

Part VII. Guided Translation 10% 請寫出完整單字才計分

46. Penny 決定要嘗試一下綠茶，看看味道如何。

Penny decided to ①_____ green tea ②_____ ③_____ to see how it tasted.

47. 暢銷作家舉辦了巡迴簽書會，並發放一百本免費新書給她的粉絲們。

The best-selling author hosted a book-signing tour and ①_____ ②_____ a hundred copies of her new book to her fans.

48. 因為那城市沒有一個計畫能應對像這樣的災難，所以發生了危機。

The crisis ①_____ ②_____ because the city did not have a plan for such a disaster.

49. 參與國際競賽提供運動員一個拓展視野的好機會。

Participation in international competitions offers a great opportunity for athletes to ①_____ ②_____ ③_____.

Part VIII. Sentence Patterns 14%

50. 用分詞合併以下兩句子 4%

There are nearly 200 WHO member states.

These member states cooperate to deal with global health issues.

→

51. 用“No matter wh- S + V, S + V....”句型來合併以下句子。 3%

Someone sends me a Christmas card. I will send one in return.

→

52. 根據括弧內的提示，來合併以下句子。4%

Linda arrived at the destination. She made a phone call back home. (Upon + N...)

→

53. 用“(Conj.) V-ing/p.p...., S + V....”句型來改寫以下句子。3%

While he was driving to work, Roger listened to his favorite radio station.

→