二、閱讀測驗 65%/@5

- (1) Seeing movies is not what it used to be. Today, moviegoers are able to see films in different forms that are far beyond 2-D images. One of these new forms is called augmented reality (AR). It adds something to what people see in reality and shows them images over whatever people are looking at. Special glasses are needed to watch AR films. Another form is virtual reality (VR). It is different from AR in that it fully replaces (取代) what people see and hear around them. It brings people into new worlds where sights and sounds have nothing to do with the actual world. Both AR and VR are still being developed, and the future probably holds some really amazing films.

8. What may you experience when you are seeing a VR movie?

  - (A) Seeing real objects.
  - (B) Hearing 2-D sounds.
  - (C) Being in virtual places.
  - (D) Touching things in the movie.

9. According to the passage, which of the following statements is true?

  - (A) There are only two kinds of films in total—AR and VR.
  - (B) Moviegoers love to wear special glasses when they are watching films.
  - (C) People experience more than 2-D images when watching films nowadays.
  - (D) The actual world with special sights and sounds appears in VR films.

10. How does the writer think about future films?

  - (A) Awesome.
  - (B) Creative.
  - (C) Familiar.
  - (D) Worried.

(2) Everybody seems to agree that Virtual Reality (VR) is the future of technology. However, some companies have gotten a head-start and are already using it to help their marketing(行銷).

Samsung decided to promote its brand in a special project with NASA. Together, they created an amazing 4D experience that lets people feel what it's like to walk on the moon. Users put on a special space suit, a harness(繫帶), and a VR headset. This technology makes them feel what it's like to be in a place of low gravity(重力). The famous snack maker, Oreo, is also using VR to promote its cookies. When users put on a VR headset, they are taken to a magical world of milk oceans and chocolate deserts. At the end, they will see the brand's newest product: a special Oreo cupcake. So far, the feedbacks on these campaigns(活動) have been positive. Therefore, we're sure to see more VR marketing in the near future!

11. What is the best title for this passage?

- (A) VR the Widely Used Technology
- (B) New Jobs Created by VR
- (C) VR Marketing Has Arrived
- (D) VR Makes Your Dream Come True

12. Why are Samsung and Oreo mentioned in the passage?

- (A) They both promote things through Internet.
- (B) They serve as examples to show the use of VR in marketing.
- (C) They don't receive great feedbacks on the VR marketing.
- (D) They are the only two companies that ask users to put on a VR headset.

- (C) 愉快的
- (D) 刺激的

(3) In life, people often act differently when they are in a group. This is called “herd mentality.” The name comes from the common animal behavior of following the groups no matter where other animals go. Although humans are more intelligent than animals, we tend to do the same thing in a group. For example, during a fire, people will follow the first person who starts running although they know they should keep calm. In some cases, herd mentality(心態) can also be positive. For example, people may become more generous and make a donation to charity if they see others doing so. Thus, there are both good and bad sides to herd mentality. We should know when it's good to follow the crowd, and when it's a negative force.

16. What is the passage mainly about?

- (A) To show how following the herd is very foolish and dangerous.
- (B) To show how making a donation to charity is something you should do.
- (C) To show the positive and negative sides of following the herd.
- (D) To show the differences between people who are alone and in a group.

17. According to the passage, what is the positive example of following the herd?

- (A) People donate money to charity after an earthquake.
- (B) Buying a lot of things because they are popular.
- (C) Following the first person when there is a fire.
- (D) Animals follow the groups no matter where they go.

18. What is the author's suggestion about following the herd?

- (A) Never follow others.
- (B) Watch what animals do.
- (C) Totally follow what others do.
- (D) Notice when it's good for you.

19. “For example” in line 4 is the meaning of _____.

- (A) 假設
- (B) 至於
- (C) 例如
- (D) 只要

20. “Generous” in this passage most likely infers that people _____.

- (A) are nice to give more to people in need
- (B) are harmful to animals
- (C) become angry with their friends
- (D) become annoyed with others.
