五、閱讀測驗(5 小題，每格 2 分，共 10 分)

Last month, I visited Matsu. Matsu is a group of small islands named after Mazu, the goddess of the sea. These islands are in the Taiwan Strait*. First, I caught the Taima ferry from Keelung Harbor. A few hours later, I arrived on Dongyin, the most eastern of the Matsu islands. Rather than explore on foot, I rented a scooter. Riding a scooter saved me a lot of time. It also allowed me to take in all the sights quickly. Matsu has beautiful cliffs*, cool caves, and a lighthouse.

The next morning, I took another ferry to Nangan. I also rode a scooter around this island, stopping to look at Beihai Tunnel. Finally, I came upon* the giant statue of Mazu herself. This statue is over 25 meters high! In just three days, I saw the best Matsu had to offer. I definitely recommend going there!
