Do you want to keep in good shape? Would you like to have a healthy body? Do you want to have something to do in your free time? The smartphone application "Nike Plus" can definitely meet your need!

Nike Plus is an application which can help us get into the habit of going jogging. When we jog, we can use it to keep track of* miles, speed, and time of our jogging. Some music can be played during our running, which makes the running more entertaining. When the running is over, we can share with friends on Facebook running information, such as routes, calories consumed*, speed, and so on. When our friends see it, they are likely to encourage us to run more or even run with us, which makes us have more motivation* to go jogging.

Different from other sports applications, Nike Plus has a special function. We can add friends who also use this app, and then a rank appears to show the distance we and our friends have run within a month. People usually desire to win over others, so this rank can make us more motivated* to run.

Isn't the app wonderful? Go to the app store to download it right now!
